

THE STROM PROJECT

Strengthening the Role of Municipalities in the Work against Trafficking in Human Beings in the Baltic Sea Region

STROM is a transnational project that aims to strengthen the capacity and role of municipalities in the chain of assistance to victims of human trafficking in the Baltic Sea Region.

ACTIVITIES OF THE PROJECT

- In order to assess the current role and responsibilities of municipalities in the chain of assistance to victims of all forms of human trafficking and develop effective anti – trafficking policies at the local level, a baseline assessment will be carried out in the Baltic Sea Region.
- A regional expert group meeting will bring together local experts from three municipalities in each CBSS Member State to share and analyse the local mechanisms in place to deal with cases of human trafficking.
- Specific guidelines for municipalities outlining the main challenges and best practices in dealing with human trafficking cases at the local level will be developed. The guidelines will provide local actors with a tool and methods to deal with victims of human trafficking.
