

Baltic 2030 Capacity Building Programme Localising SDGs

Module 2

SDGs in practice: Integrated approaches for Circular Economy

23 May 2019, Stockholm, Sweden Norrskan House, conference room Moon Birger Jarlsgatan 57c
12.00 - 13.00	Lunch Sopköket, Norrskan House, Moon, Birger Jarlsgatan 57c
Welcome and Introduction
13.00 - 13.20	Welcome remarks and introduction (5 min each)	Kurt Bratteby, Director, Department for International Relations at Swedish Institute Maira Mora, Ambassador, Director General of the CBSS Tove Ahlström, CEO Global Utmaning
13.20 - 13.30	Introduction to module 2 and recap from module 1	Joel Ahlgren, Project manager Global Utmaning Olga Zuin, Programme Coordinator CBSS
13.30 - 13.40	Keynote speech: Circular priorities in Sweden and beyond. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- What is the role of the Swedish Delegation on circular economy and why is it important?- Sweden and circular economy: opportunities, barriers and ways forward.	Åsa Domeij, Head of the governmental delegation on circular economy and chief of sustainability at Axfoods

Setting the scene - Why the circular economy is a pathway to sustainable development
13.45 - 14.00	Introduction to Circular Economy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What is the Circular Economy? - Why do we need it? - What are today's trends and tomorrow's needs? 	Anders Wijkman , chair Circular Sweden, honorary chair Club of Rome, senior adviser Global Utmaning.
14.00 - 14.30	Going circular - Why cities are key to the circular transformation Introduction to OECD work on circular economy focusing on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - How is the OECD working with circular economy? - Why is a territorial approach important to circular economy? - What are the good examples from OECD's programme on circular cities and regions, and what are the key factors of this success? 	Oriana Romano , Policy analyst, cities, urban policies and sustainable development, OECD
14.30 - 15.00	Check-in: What does circular economy in mean in practice. What does it mean to think and do the circular economy and how can circularity accelerate the transformation and sustainable development of cities and regions? Reflections from participants on circular economy, existing practices, perspectives for integrated local/regional development.	Tove Ahlström , CEO Global Utmaning
Good practices & solutions - An integrated approach to circular actions
15.00 - 15.30	Bus to the site visit at Norra Djurgårdsstaden	Global Utmaning
15.30 - 17.30	Site visit to Norra Djurgårdsstaden, Stockholm Learn from the experiences of piloting sustainable cities strategies in the city of Stockholm. Norra Djurgårdsstaden was formerly an industrial area, now transformed into a futuristic and sustainable housing area.	Bo Hallqvist Information Officer, Norra Djurgårdsstaden.
17.30 - 18.00	Bus to back Stockholm and dinner
18.00 - 19.30	Dinner Hotel Birger Jarl, Tulegatan 8, Stockholm

24 May 2019, Stockholm, Sweden
Norrskan House, conference room Moon
Birger Jarlsgatan 57c

09.00 - 09.40	Introduction and follow up on commitments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Menti check-in - Recap from the first day - Presentation of outcomes from module 1 - Introduction to thematic sessions 	Joel Ahlgren, Project manager Global Utmaning Olga Zuin, Programme Coordinator CBSS
09.40 - 10.00	Follow up on commitments from the 1st module Participant presentation of commitments from the 1st module	Joel Ahlgren, Project manager Global Utmaning
10.00 - 10.20	The societal value of the circular economy Presentation of The Agenda 2030 Compass developed by Stockholm Environment Institute and Jernkontoret. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - An overview of how to use the compass to align and integrate the SDGs to identify needs and possibilities for societal value. - Focus on circularity as a pathway to sustainable local and regional development. - discussions 	Kristian Skånberg, Researcher, Stockholm Environment Institute and senior advisor, Global Utmaning.
10.20 - 10.40	Green innovations and Circular Economy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What is the role of the role of green innovations for municipality-led circular economy? - discussions 	Elisabeth Bergendorff, Business Development Assistant, Climate-Kic
10.40 - 10.45	Presentation of Sopköket (reduce waste kitchen - the caterers)	Filip Lundin, Founder of Sopköket
10.40 - 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 - 12.20	Workshop 1: Examples on circularity Examples of circular economy practices from participants and discussions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - What is the state of circularity in your municipality or region? - Is there an initiative or method you wish to highlight as a good example on circular economy practices? - What are the main challenges you face when working with a circular economy? - Reflection in group on ideas on how to overcome the challenges? 	Olga Zuin, Programme Coordinator CBSS (5 min presentation per participant)
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch Hotel Birger Jarl, Tulegatan 8, Stockholm
Lessons learned & recommendations - Closing the circle

13.30-14.30	Workshop 2: Closing the circle <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Discussion in groups about relating circular economy practices to local challenges, opportunities, and ways forward on sustainable development. - How can circular economy facilitate the realization of regional actions plans for sustainable development? 	Joel Ahlgren, Project manager Global Utmaning
14.30-15.00	Presentations of workshops	Joel Ahlgren, Project manager Global Utmaning Olga Zuin, Programme Coordinator CBSS
15.00-15.15	Wrap up and goodbye	